About the 5e Fiendopedia
The 5e Fiendopedia is designed to augment the monsters available to a game master. Each monster has its own page, including a wonderful color illustration. Print them out, hole-punch them, and place them in a binder. Keep a binder of just those used in your campaign. Sort them by name, challenge, environment or any other way you need them. More 5e Fiendopedia are forthcoming with even more creatures!

Feedback/Notice a Mistake?
If you see something that seems off or a way to enhance a creature, please send the comment to support@inkwellideas.com. We have the opportunity to fix it and put out an update for everyone's benefit.
This icy statue stands a head taller than a human. A rime of frost coats it, and razor-sharp shards of ice adorn its limbs.

Golems are magically created automatons of great power. They stand apart from other constructs in the nature of their animating force—golems are granted their magical life via an elemental spirit, typically that of an earth elemental. The process of creating a golem binds the spirit to the artificial body, merging it with this specially prepared vessel and subjecting it to the will of the golem’s creator.

Being mindless, golems do nothing without orders from their creators. They follow instructions explicitly and are incapable of complex strategy or tactics. A golem’s creator can command it if the golem is within 60 feet and can see and hear its creator. If uncommanded, a golem usually follows its last instruction to the best of its ability, though if attacked it returns the attack. The creator can give the golem a simple command to govern its actions in his absence, or can order the golem to obey the commands of another, but the golem’s creator can always resume control by commanding the golem to obey him alone.

Ice golems are humanoid automatons formed of carved ice. Their appearance can range from roughly chiseled figures of ice and snow to elaborately detailed ice sculptures and beautiful crystalline statues.

Ice golems cannot speak, and move with the sound of cracking and popping ice. An ice golem stands 7 feet tall and weighs 500 pounds.
Golem, Totem

This tall—15ft—automaton is a living totem pole. It has several beneficial effects for allies.

Armor Class 18 (natural armor)

Hit Points 147 (14d10+70)

Vulnerabilities (Damage) fire

Immunities (Damage) cold, poison, psychic; bludgeoning and piercing from nonmagical weapons except adamantine

Immunities (Condition) charmed, exhaustion, frightened, paralyzed, petrified, poisoned

Str 22 (+6)  Dex 9 (-1)  Con 20 (+5)  Int 6 (-2)  Wis 18 (+4)  Cha 10 (+0)

Speed 30 ft.

Senses darkvision 60 ft., passive Perception 10

Languages understands its creator’s languages but can’t speak

Actions

Multi-attack. The totem golem makes two slam attacks.

Slam. Melee Weapon Attack: +8 to hit, reach 10 ft., one target.

Hit: 2d8+6 bludgeoning damage.

Traits

Barkskin. As long as it is conscious, all creatures within 100 ft. that it considers an ally will have a minimum AC 16.

Enhance Ability. Any creature the golem considers an ally may touch it and receive the creature’s choice of the Enhance Ability spell’s effects. Only one additional creature per round may gain this effect, but the effect lasts one minute. The ability to grant the effect resets at the end of the golem’s turn.

Immutable Form. The golem is immune to any spell or effect that would alter its form.

Innate Spellcasting. The totem golem’s spellcasting ability is Wisdom (spell save DC 14). It can innately cast the following spells, requiring only verbal components:

- 5/day: Create Water, Entangle, Fog Cloud
- 3/day: Gust of Wind, Spike Growth
- 1/day: Plant Growth, Wind Wall

Magic Resistance. The golem has advantage on saving throws against spells and other magical effects.

Magic Weapons. The golem’s weapon attacks are magical.

Ecology

Environment any

Organization solitary or gang (2-4)

Treasure none

A totem golem stands 15 feet tall, weighs 800 pounds and is carved from rare woods and painted to resemble a number of creatures. They have generally beneficial effects for the people that create them: better childbirths, more crops, etc. In times of combat, the spirit of the totem golem comes to life. It will animate to defend the village. Its allies may also gain abilities to make them stronger, faster, harder to hit, etc. A shaman’s ritual may also send it on a special mission.

A wood golem is carved from rare woods, assembled into a roughly humanoid body with articulated limbs. Their creators usually leave their bodies almost unfinished, with individual pieces of lumber and unworked wood apparent and obvious as part of their construction. A wood golem stands 6-1/2 feet tall and weighs 400 pounds.
Iron Cobra

This creature resembles a small, metallic cobra. Its body is made of overlapping iron plates, and its eyes are pinpoints of red light.

Armor Class 18 (natural armor)
Hit Points 38 (4d10+16)
Immunities (Damage) fire, poison, psychic; bludgeoning, piercing and slashing from nonmagical weapons that aren’t adamantine
Immunities (Condition) charmed, exhaustion, frightened, paralyzed, petrified, poisoned

Str 16 (+3)  Dex 16 (+3)  Con 18 (+4)  Int 3 (-4)  Wis 10 (+0)  Cha 1 (-5)

Speed 40 ft.
Skills Stealth +12
Senses darkvision 60 ft., passive Perception 10
Languages understands its creator’s languages but can’t speak

Actions
Bite. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 1d8+3 piercing damage and the target must make a DC 12 Constitution saving throw, taking 3d8 poison damage on a failed save. Poison may only be used 3 times until refilled.

Traits
Find Target. Once per day, the iron cobra’s creator can order it to find and kill a specific creature within one mile, which it does as if guided by the spell Locate Creature (with a changed range of one mile.) The creator must have seen or be holding an object from the specified creature for this to function.
Tremor Sense. The iron cobra has advantage on Wisdom (Perception) checks on surface movements.

Ecology
Environment any
Organization solitary, pair or nest (3-10)

Variants
Adamantine Cobra (+1 Challenge): This cobra is more solidly built than others. Its AC increases to 21, and it gains +5 hp per HD.
Mithral Cobra (+1 Challenge): This cobra is much swifter. Its Dexterity increases by +4 and its speed to 70 ft., and it gains a Multiattack action to make two bite attacks.

The iron cobra is a simple construct that resembles a hooded cobra made out of metal. The iron cobra is typically used as a bodyguard or guardian of treasure, though its magical ability to unerringly locate creatures means it is also used as an assassin. Since an iron cobra’s poison reservoir can contain multiple types of venom, the construct’s specific use can be further tailored by varying the poison used. Some spellcasters even fill these reservoirs with potions, so that when the cobra bites, it injects the potion into its target. This is a somewhat dangerous method for gaining the effects of a potion, but it does free up the cobra’s master to do other things in a combat round apart from quaffing potions.
Retriever

A spider the size of a bull elephant rears up on its back four legs in a violent challenge, eyes shimmering with magical energy.

Actions
- Multiattack. The retriever makes a bite attack, 4 claw attacks and an Eye Ray attack.
- Bite. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 1d8+6 piercing damage and the target must make a DC 14 Dexterity saving throw and be restrained on a failed save.
- Claw. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 15 ft., one target. Hit: 2d6+6 slashing damage.
- Eye Ray. A retriever's eyes can produce four different magical rays, each with a range of 90 feet. Each round, it can fire one ray. A particular ray is usable only once every 4 rounds. The eye ray effects are the following: Fire: Deals 12d6 fire damage (DC 18 Dexterity half). Cold: Deals 12d6 cold damage (DC 18 Dexterity half). Electricity: Deals 12d6 electricity damage (DC 18 Dexterity half). Petrification: Target must succeed on a DC 18 Dexterity save or turn to stone permanently.

Traits
- Discern Location. At any time, a retriever may discern the location of a creature as the Locate Creature spell, except the range is unlimited and nothing short of a Mind Blank spell circumvents it.
- Relentless. A retriever is constantly under the effects of spider climb and water walk; these abilities cannot be dispelled.
- Regeneration. The retriever regains 5 hit points at the start of its turn, unless it is reduced to 0 hit points or less.

Ecology
- Environment any (Abyss)
- Organization solitary
- Treasure none

Not all constructs are formed from unliving matter like stone, wood, metal, or dead flesh. In the darkest corners of the Great Beyond, certain powerful demon lords have mastered the art of shaping the raw, protoplasmic flesh of the Abyss into hideous monstrosities devoid of life, emotion, and the will to resist control. The monstrous retriever is the best-known of such constructs, a huge spider-like creation capable of unleashing potent energy upon those it has been ordered to seek.

Demon lords use retrievers to seek out those who dare abandon their loyalties or flee from servitude. Often, the presence of a retriever in a demon's den is enough in and of itself to ensure the loyalty of the lesser demons. The constructs also excel in tracking down specific objects and returning them to their masters—their intelligence is just enough to allow them to focus on their ordered tasks but not quite enough for them to form ideas of rebellion and longings for freedom.

A retriever's body is the size of an elephant, and its legspan is nearly 30 feet. It weighs 6,500 pounds.
